One of the most important things your child needs is a crib. So, you got a nice second-hand crib for a good price, and that's being practical. But once you start mounting, only then do you realize that a special piece of the cradle hardware is missing. Yes, very frustrating isn't it? "I don't blame you if you feel frustrated. A missing part of unique attachments for a baby cot is not something you can buy at any time from a local warehouse. And the longer it takes to find that part of attachments, the more frustration it regulates itself inside. Soon, you start to regret buying an inexpensive crib that you couldn't use, and all because of a missing hardware. Before you dismantle the crib and throw it away, Maybe there is light at the end of the tunnel. So... where to buy spare parts of the crib? That is a reason why manufacturers must use screws, nuts, bolts, etc. And this to make sure that a customer like you would have no trouble finding the spare parts. But it's not always like that. In fact, a lot of baby cots in the market use special fixtures. Luckily there is an American product/company, specialized in the sale of all types of fixtures of the cot. Product America is a great place to find almost all the replacement hardware you are looking for. They also sell metal and plastic tools for many different brands of cribs for children who are now out of production. In addition to cribs, they also have spare parts of cribs, chairs and more. If they don't have the part you need, guess what? They can customize it for you. Not only can you find spare parts for a crib, but also other baby parts products such as crib, chair and more. In case the parts you are looking for are not available on Product America, you can contact them to customize them for you. Their website has this text search function can be useful in searching for cradle hardware. If you are not sure what the piece is called, their visual index will offer you Help. If happens to have a hot-branded baby cot, so another option for you must contact the supplier. Below is a list of major branded cribs and links to their homepage. Usually they have online mounting instructions. Some also have an area where you can request spare parts and hardware for cot. Assembly instructions and spare parts for majority cradle brands I have not listed the brand you have, here is a quick way to find the Documentation and other information. 1) Go to Google 2) Search for the «brand name» of the cradle A «Assembly instructions» You can replace the assembly instruction with other keys such as a manual. 3. Search for a «brand name» cradle A «Name of the piece or hardware.» Here's how you can look for spare parts. Double quotes are useful for brands that have two or more words. Forces Google to look for exact words within quotation marks. During research, do not use brackets. How did you read so far? How about helping us spreading this post awesome to your friends and family? Your screen will help us to motivate us to create new fantastic posts for you and for everyone else. Thank you for your support! How to get in touch with the producer a good brand would have no problems with spare parts for cribs made over the last ten years. The same may not be true for imported cribs. First of contact the manufacturer asking for the cradle hardware, make sure you have the following information at your fingertips: The number or name of the part you need. If you are not sure what the piece is called, take a picture and send them an email. The model number and possibly the date of manufacture so that they can help you better. Find the name of the manufacturer and the cradle model should not be too difficult. Usually, you find it along the frame Cradle. Even if the model is not specified, so if you know the manufacturer, you should be able to identify him. If the tag has been removed, please refer to the user manual. Doubt. Go to the Internet to search for company contact information. Alternatively, you can refer to the list above for most brands of Brands Children Contact Information. What! Do you have a drop-side crib? Did you know that the drop-side nursery has killed more than thirty babies and children in the last ten years? Therefore, in June 2011, the US Government issued a ban on all drop-offs, and millions of drop-side nurseries were recalled. Presenting the cot for children with drop-side allows the parent to reach their child more easily, which is also Friendly to the rear custodian, but the problem was that the hinges on the mobile sides were prone to break. This can create gaps where children can be blocked and injured or worse strangled and cause death. A cot for children with drop-side is dangerous for your child. If you own a drop-side cot, you should put it away or convert the drop-down cot into a fixed cot with this conversion kit. If the conversion kit is not suitable for your baby crib, you might want to contact the product America if they can customize a fixed side kit for you. trashing away the crib downhill may not be the best option as creating More landfill and not to mention it is not environmentally friendly. Here are some suggestions... cycling disassemble the crib, remove all the hardware and recycle the wood. Make sure you do not discard cradle hardware such as screws, bolts and nuts. In this way, other people cannot assemble and use a cradle with an imperfect design. The repressor might be a good time to get you to take wood working as a hobby unless you are already. You could use parts of the crib to create furniture for your home or garden. Fire Bockear that uses wood in your fireplace during winter days It is an option but one that is not recommended. Wood used in nurseries for children has chemicals (treatments and painting) that release smoke when burned. These fumes are not only unpleasant to the smell, but can also be toxic. Among all products for children, children, Take it is one of the things that your child uses for a long period of time. Judging by the hours they spend inside the group, It means a lot to make sure that the grip is safe for your child. By choosing the grip of protections for your child that makes sure your child is safe but also you are buying a peace of mind for her knowing that your child is safe inside her grip. One last thing. We also have the top seven crib of the child that any mother would love and I bet you would, too. This post was last updated on December 16th 2016
